The much anticipated 2nd Annual Toronto Freedom Festival returns Saturday, May 3rd to Queen's Park North. The city's largest one-day outdoor spring festival, will once again present multiple stages featuring musicians, vendors, artists, exhibitors and speakers coming together to celebrate our cherished freedoms. Once again there will also be an Awareness Area with several community organizations representing local and global interests.

The Toronto Freedom Festival's flagship event, the 10th Annual Global Marijuana March takes place in over 200 cities worldwide! Toronto's event is the largest attendance of all participating cities with over 12,000 people attending last year. Marchers travel peacefully north along its traditional Bloor Street West route and continue eastward to Yonge Street. Heading south to Wellesley where they will head back to the festival for the remainder of the day. The march will leave the north-end of Queen's Park at approximately 2:00 p.m.

This is an alcohol-free event. This year organizers have added an additional 'Taste of Freedom' food vendor area to accommodate the 25,000+ hungry festivalgoers.
